Letter To The Editor

Letter to the Editor:

Dear Editor:

This has been a year filled with changes in many areas at Blue Cross and Blue Shield, ranging from the introduction of new programs in health care field to new management philosophies. We appreciate your responses to our Public Relations efforts during the transition of 1970.

We depend heavily upon your cooperation in our endeavors to provide the public with items of interest concerning the overall health care field in the Old Dominion.

The entire Public Relations Staff extends to you, your personnel, and your loved ones every wish for the best of health and prosperity, and we look forward to working with you in the New Year.

Cordially,

James C. Green, Manager
Public Relations.

The Pastor Speaks

MAN MADE NEW

Has anything new happened in your life recently? The Bible says that the life of a Christian is to be new and different. "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Corinthians 5:17(Christians need to have that bit of extra in their life. This will be quite noticeable at home. Christians need to be distinguished by diligence in their work. This will be noticed on the job. Christians will seek to excel energetically in whatever they do. This will be noticed at school and on the athletic field. Christians are new people who have been recreated by the Grace of God.

Recently I saw a film telling of a mission conference specially planned for young people. Young people who attended the conference were interviewed and asked of the changes made in their lives by the conference. One bright-faced college boy, well-muscled and athletically built, described how he had decided that his love for football had dominated his life. 'From now on,' he said, 'Christ is going to be in control of me.' Another energetic young man told how his heart had been fired with a determination to return to his college campus and share the life-transforming power of Jesus Christ. These were men who had been made new. Their lives were different because of the entrance of Jesus Christ.

A thrilling biography entitled God's Smuggler tells the story of an intrepid Dutch Christian who, one night in his tent, lighted a candle, and peeled open a date. To his dismay, there was a worm, so he threw it aside. A second and third date also had worms. Exasperated, the Arab blew out the candle and ate the fourth date. "Rather than face unpleasant realities," comments Bishop Kennedy, "we often find it easier to stay with things as they are and hope for the best. It hardly ever works."

"It's Good Enough for Me"

Many of us may be like the Arab: we do not like to face unpleasant realities. One of the most unpleasant realities for Christians today are the rapid changes -- sociological, technological, theological, moral, political -- taking place in our world. They are unpleasant because they are challenging us to change and we do not want to change. It is not our changes, then, that many of us look back to the "good old days" and sing: "Give me that old time religion . . . It's good enough for me."

No doubt about it, the old-time religion was good, But what we forget is that what made it "good" was that in its own day it spoke to the needs of people where they were, It proved to be that it was not geared to some day gone by, but present circumstances. Though different in many respects, the style of church life, our form of worship, our mode of witness, our forms wear-out in the freshness of the Gospel always in danger of being The important thing is not the wineskin, the form, but the real reality, the new wine of the Gospel, not our way of expressing it, that is important. At one time it was right to worship Secretly in combs; today there is freedom to do so. The important thing is that we worship, not how or when.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY LAWRENCE W. ALTHOUSE

"OLD-TIME RELIGION"

Lesson for January 10, 1971

Background Scripture: Matthew 9:14-17; 13:31-33, 51, 52; Mark 4:26-29.

Bishop General Kennedy of the United Methodist Church tells an old story of a hungry Arab, who spends his life smuggling Bibles and religious literature behind the Iron Curtain. He has been just one more adventurous, reckless, and wandering young man before Jesus Christ came into his heart in the early 1950's. Then step by step the Lord led him into this daring but necessary ministry of aiding spiritually hungry Christians behind the Iron Curtain. He is a man made new.

God may not call you to go behind the Iron Curtain, but he is eager to see you new at home. God may not call you to give up football or to return to a college campus to witness, but he wants you to be different wherever your feet carry you.

With the help of God let the life-transforming power of Jesus Christ made you step by step into a new creature who shows forth the splendors of God's goodness in every phase of life.

Raiders Whip Holy Cross 47-30

The Appomattox Raiders beat Holy Cross 47-30 last Tuesday night in a non-conference basketball game played at Holy Cross. The win was the fifth in a row for Appomattox and now gives them a 6-1 overall mark and a 4-1 district mark.

The Raiders fell behind 8-7 after a quarter of play as Holy Cross went to a slow-down type ball, but it did not take Appomattox long to overcome that as they outscored the home team 12 in the second quarter for a 19 - 10 halftime lead.

In the third quarter Holy Cross came back to tie the game at 23-23 but the Raiders managed to outscore the home team after three quarters even though Holy Cross outscored the Raiders 15-13 in that quarter. It was no contest in the last quarter as the Raiders scored 16 points to five for Holy Cross and won going away.

The Raiders led in about all of the departments as Weldon Elliott took game scoring honors with 22 points and Dave Wilmoth had nine and Bruce Hancock had eight for top men. The Raiders hit around 34% from the floor to only about 28% for Holy Cross. Ronnie McCoy was high in rebounds for Appomattox with 13, as was Mike Madison for Holy Cross, also with 13 but the Raiders had a total of 38 to 38 for the goals. The Raiders hit 11 of 18 free throws compared to four of 10 for Holy Cross.

Warren Baker was top scorer for Holy Cross with 11 points, followed by Mike Coles with six points. Holy Cross now have a 2-3 record for the season.

Holy Cross used a full court press and a man-on-man, but the Raiders adjusted to it very quickly and got the ball under the basket for the easy shots most of the second half.

Raiderettes To Play Friday

The Appomattox Raiderettes will travel to E. C. Glass, Friday night, Jan. 8th for a basketball game with the Hillcroppers girls. The game will start at 7:30 p.m. with only one game being played.

The Raiderettes have a 5-0 record this season and will be looking for victory number six.

Stretcher Saves Lives

Appomattox Rescue Squad Captain Gordon Staples (the "man in motion" on the left) and president Ray Noble illustrate with Mrs. A. A. Fratrick a "patient" the orthopedic stretcher donated by Camp 71, Woodmen of the World. The stretcher "has already saved lives" the Squad officers told the Woman's Club Monday night. Two more would be very helpful – then each vehicle (including the ambulance on order) would have one. The Woman's Club is planning a card party at the Avalon Friday, Jan. 22 with all proceeds going to the Squad. The Rescue Squad answered 420 calls during 1970. (Ray Noble was in on 130 of them.)
